

Dear transplant nurse,

How time slips away and memories can tend to fade. Yet for me those memories of my liver transplant February 24, 2005 and your care are tattooed within my very soul.

Nancy and I think of you often remembering the days for healing at The Mayo Clinic. Your smile, skill, encouragement, guidance and just knowing you were there for us in person, or by phone, at a moments notice. You are a friend for life.

Sunday at St Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Newport Beach we sang that wonderful hymn:

It is Well With My Soul

*When peace, like a river, attendeth my way,
When sorrows like sea billows roll;
Whatever my lot, Thou has taught me to say,
It is well; it is well with my soul*

*It is well, with my soul,
It is well, with my soul
It is well; it is well, with my soul*

Nancy and I turned to look at each other and prayed for you. You see this song was on my I POD and I listen to it just before Dr. Christopher Hughes operated and throughout my time with you at The Mayo Clinic. May God always guide and bless you.

Deepest Gratitude,

Tom & Nancy Thompson
